

HOWICK LITTLE THEATRE WORKSHOP

THE CRAFT OF ACTING WITH JENNIFER WARD-LEALAND

WHERE: Howick Little Theatre, Lloyd Elsmore Park, 1 Sir Lloyd Drive, Pakuranga

WHEN: Saturday, 27 July 2024

TIME: 9.30am – 4.00pm

COST: $75 participant (12 places) / $20 observer (18 places)

BRING: Your own lunch, and pen and paper, or another device to make notes.

The Craft of Acting: Exploring and Developing Acting Craft in Scene and Monologue Study is a great opportunity to learn from one of New Zealand's most accomplished actors, directors and teachers. The workshop is designed for new performers looking to develop their craft, covering objectives, pace, the inspiration of the breath, and approaching the script. Participants will be directed through short scenes and receive detailed feedback. Observers also have an opportunity to learn without participating in the exercises.

Please fill out and return the Workshop Registration Form or contact the theatre office at info@hlt.org.nz for more information.

ABOUT THE TUTOR

Since training at Auckland's influential Theatre Corporate, Jennifer has worked extensively as an actor, director and teacher in theatre, film, television, musical and radio for over 40 years. She is also a fully accredited intimacy coordinator for stage and screen.

Jennifer was a founding board member of the Watershed Theatre and a co-founder of The Actors' Program. She is President of Equity New Zealand (since 2007), Patron of Q Theatre, and serves as a trust board member for The Actors Benevolent Fund. In the 2007 New Year's Honours List, she was named an Officer of the New Zealand Order of Merit for services to theatre and the community.

Last year she was named SPADA Industry Champion and in the 2019 New Year's Honours list she was named a CNZM for services to theatre, film and television and a Women of Influence in the Arts and Culture Category. In 2020, Jennifer was named New Zealander of the Year.
