THE CASE OF THE FRIGHTENED LADY

FROM THE DIRECTOR

A quote from the Irish Times: “Bill Scott’s melodramatic, helter-skelter, DIY whodunnit is a dizzying tangle of red herrings and black humour.” So, there you have a professional review of the play you are about to see. And it’s very accurate.

“Would you like to direct the play The Case of the Frightened Lady? Laurie and I think you would be able to do so” (or words to that effect from our Artistic Advisor). So, obviously, my next step was to read the script. It came off the page in random confusion, to be honest, but I forged ahead and accepted the role of director. I couldn’t have been blessed with a more wonderful cast – experienced, collaborative and utterly brilliant. I take it as a compliment that I have directed the three lads before: they were prepared to suffer my directing again! And the two female roles have been so ably taken on by two newbies to HLT. A warm welcome to Hannah and Victoria.

Heartfelt thanks go to a supportive team that you, our dear audience, don’t see. My special thanks must go to my Production Co-ordinator, Laurie Mills, without whom I would not have managed to get the play where it is. He is truly amazing.

PENELOPE KEEGAN

Director

Penel has been round the traps for some years now, both on stage and as director. It's nearly 30 years since her first appearance at HLT in The Darling Buds of May. Being of retirement age, she is lucky enough to be able to do a couple of volunteer jobs, stave off the inevitable by a minimum of three gym visits per week, and help her family whenever needed. She is currently helping two of her grandsons to learn to drive! Her five grandchildren are all taller than her, so finally she is the shortest member of the family – no more measuring needed!

MATTHEW COUSINS

Edgar Wallace

Matthew is delighted to be back on stage again at HLT. He last appeared in 2024 in Around the World in 80 Days as Phileas Fogg and is loving working with new and old friends in this production. By day, he works as an osteopath at his home clinic in Half Moon Bay.

HANNAH THIPTHORPE

Mrs Wallace

Hannah is very excited for her theatre debut in Auckland, having been in multiple productions in Wellington with Stagecraft and Khandallah Arts Theatres since 2016. Hannah's favourite productions have included The Revlon Girl, Sense and Sensibility and Woman in Mind. She is loving bringing all her characters to life in this very funny show with such a talented cast and crew. Hannah's day job is far less fun by comparison, having worked in central and local government roles for almost 20 years. In her day job, she attempts to bring calm to the chaos, which is the complete opposite of this production!

VICTORIA MACCULLOCH

Jenifer

Victoria is an actress and writer who has worked in local TV and film for the past few years after returning from LA. She played Bianca in TVNZ's Dirty Laundry, Addie Lynch on Shortland Street, and has acted in a number of short films. When she's not filming, you can find her working as a marketing contractor, getting out into nature, exploring the city, or vigorously burning sage in the hopes it will fix her entire life (it never does).

ARTHUR YOUNG

Baxter

While Arthur did a lot of acting in high school and university back in the 80s and 90s, he took a break from it all when he had finished his studies and went to get a "real" job. He came back to the theatre in 2008 for HLT's Twelve Angry Men. Since then, he has been pretty consistent with theatre endeavours.

Aside from his theatre activities, Arthur's other hobbies also lean into his need to perform. Firstly, there are the roleplaying games like Dungeons & Dragons and Call of Cthulhu. Secondly, there are the pole-dancing classes.

JAMES CALVERLEY

Gardner

James is delighted to be back on stage, where the furniture doesn't talk back and no one expects him to log into Zoom. Recent roles include Worst Wedding Ever, Grand Horizons, and a haunting turn as "Sad Man With Clipboard" in a corporate training video banned in three countries for emotional distress. Offstage, James enjoys starting DIY projects he can't finish, reading murder mysteries for "research", and debating politics with his dogs, Ajax and Athena. Please send all feedback via carrier pigeon or carved into the bark of a sacred elm.

THE PLAY

It's 1932 and Edgar Wallace, the Fleet Street editor widely known for his hugely popular and successful whodunnits, gets a desperate call from his publisher for a new novel – immediately. With only a weekend to spare and severe writer's block, the indefatigable Wallace calls on the entire household to assist, and their antics dizzyingly devolve into chaos as the lines between fiction and reality blur. Family friendly.

THE PLAYWRIGHT Bill Scott

Bill Scott is the founder and Artistic Director of Miracle Theatre Company, established in 1979. Since its inception, he has been the driving creative force behind the company with writing, adapting, and directing the majority of its productions. His work is characterised by a distinctive blend of humour, inventiveness, and a commitment to engaging storytelling. Beyond the stage, Bill is also a filmmaker and an avid beekeeper, keeping him constantly on his toes.
